

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The City Amusements. At the Theatre the very laughable comedy of The Savoy Housemaid will be performed for the last time this evening. Tomorrow, by particular request, the drama of Herod's Feast and the comedy of The Jacobites will be given. Tomorrow there will be a children's matinee, when Miss Jack the Giant Killer will be performed. On Monday the new play of Zerkow, or the White Woman of Wellow will be produced with new scenery and effects. At the Walnut the drama of Uncle Tom's Cabin is announced for this evening. It will also be performed at the matinee to-morrow. On Monday Miss Barlow will commence an engagement with Tom Taylor's drama of Mary Warner. At the Arch Buckstone's comedy of Single Life will be presented this evening, with the comic drama of Our Wife. At Dupre's & Benedict's Opera House an amusing programme of Ethiopian comicallies will be offered this evening. At the Elvinstown Street Opera House the entertainment for this evening will combine a number of amusing features. STONOR BROTHERS will execute some of his most remarkable feats of magic this evening at the Assembly Building. A matinee to-morrow. THE SEVENTH STREET ORCHESTRA will perform to-morrow afternoon at Musical Fund Hall. THE 'STAR' COURSE OF LECTURES.—This evening Rev. Robert Collier, D. D., will discourse at the Academy of Music on "Circumstances and very entertaining lecture may be expected. Mr. Collier has a very high reputation at the West as an orator and humorist, and as he speaks with much curiosity to hear him, a crowded house may be expected. On Tuesday next Mark Twain will lecture. Mr. Fugh announces three supplementary lectures for the young folks, to be delivered by Mr. Paul B. DuChaille on the afternoons of December 11, 12, and 13. M. DuChaille will describe his wonderful adventures in Africa, with pictorial and other illustrations to make them as interesting as possible. Tickets for the series can be procured at Gould's on and after Monday next. J. B. GORON, Esq., will lecture on "Circumstances" on Monday evening next, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. OPERA DE CARAMEL. Mr. J. Remington Fairbank announces that he will produce his new opera, entitled Treasured Tokens, at the Chesnut Street Theatre on Wednesday afternoon, December 15. A number of popular artists have been engaged to interpret this work, including Mrs. Remington Fairbank, Madame S. Heilrens, Mr. W. J. Hill, Mr. W. W. Gilchrist, and Mr. W. H. Beckett. The cast consists of twenty-five voices, and the orchestra of twenty performers selected from the best talent in the city. Mr. Fairbank states that this is a distinct work from his grand opera of Leonello, which he hopes to be able to produce. He calls Treasured Tokens an opera di camera because it is not sufficiently elaborate for a grand opera, and yet aims at a higher rank than a mere operetta. It was at first intended to produce it in a private mansion at the Amateur Drawing Room, but a variety of circumstances have combined to render a more public performance expedient. As an effort for the advancement of American musical art, this work ought to receive a cordial recognition at the hands of the public, and we hope that the attendance at this experimental performance will be large enough to encourage the composer, and to enable him to make a fair test of the value of his work. Mr. Fairbank, as an American and as a Philadelphian, is entitled to hearty support in placing before the public an original composition of this character. The price of tickets will be $1.00 and $1.50 for reserved seats, which can be secured at Trump's. HON. ISAAC S. DIEHL, the Oriental traveler, will deliver four lectures on Oriental and Bible lands, at the Second Reformed Church, Seventh street, above Brown, on Monday evening, December 6; Tuesday, December 7; Monday, December 13; and Tuesday, December 14. At each lecture choice selections of music will be sung by the choir of the church. The price of single tickets is 50 cents; for the course, $1. CITY ITEMS. PREPARATORY MEDICATION.—The human system, the most delicate and sensitive of all created things, should be duly prepared to meet the shock occasioned by a sudden change in the temperature of the air. Even the solid metals contract and expand under cold and heat—so that if a man were composed of iron, instead of frail tissues and fibres, circulating fluids and brittle osseous matter, his frame would not be proof against the vicissitudes of climate. As it is, it behoves every one, especially the feeble, to fortify the frail tenement of mortality against the inclemency of the present season. A wholesome strength-supplying vegetable tonic and alterative is the preparatory medicine required, and among medicinal agents of this character HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS stand supreme. In a successful career of nearly a quarter of a century, the preparation has never been equalled or approached, and its sales are now larger than those of any half dozen articles purporting to belong to the same class that have ever been advertised in this country. As a remedy and preventive of DYSPEPSIA, and all its complications, it may be said to have freed down competition and to be the standard specific of the Western Hemisphere. A course of this genial restorative at the commencement of winter is the surest safeguard against all the complaints which are caused or aggravated by exposure to cold.
